T. Ramaswamiyer, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Secretary to the Government of His Highness

the Maharaja of Mysore, Huzrai Department,

Bangalore.

Sir,

In submitting herewith the records ending with the Closenet Sub-Divisional Officer's No. J.873 of 21-22 dated 10th instant, I have the honour to state that one Syed Jaffer Sab was the Khaji of the Chennapatna town receiving a monthly cash grant of annas 9-7. He died in the month of April 1919, leaving two sons. As both of them were minors then, the Musalman residents of Chennapatna town requested the Pesh Imam to act as their Khaji during their minority. He was accordingly performing duties of the Khaji but without Government sanction. He was also teaching Khuran to the minor boys.

Syed Ibrahim Sab, the eldest son of the deceased Khaji who has now attained his majority, has put in an application claiming his father post and the arrears of cash grant. The Pesh Imam and the Musalman residents of Chennapatna are in favour of appointing Syed Ibrahim Sab as their Khaji, as he is trained and fit for the post. Pesh Imam Mo Syed Mahomed Shaw Khadri, who was all the while officiating as Khaj does not claim any remuneration for the services he rendered but ha stated that the undisbursed cash grant may be paid to Syed Ibrahim

Under these circumstances, I request you to be so good as to o sanction of the Government to appoint Syed Ibrahim Sab as the Kha of Chennapatna Town.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

D Ramaswamy

Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District.

What about the arrears of pay which have not been claimed by the Acting incumbent? Both the G.Os taken & the draft G.O proposed are silent on the point.

Dy 18-7-22

Ted.

The question of arrears will perhaps have to be taken up, when a bill is received from the Dy: Commr: under Art 10(6) M.S.C. Vol I. The calculations have to be made by the Auditor, & after sanction to the post, is appointed by Govt.

Dy 19.7. Sh 19.7.22

The arrears will be paid to the Executive when a bill is received and passed. The money will be taken from the Fcl Member) 21/7/22 pr.
